All lots should be vetted for eyes, heart, action, age and ascertainment of catalogue descriptions for a fee of £65.

Buyers must notify the office that they require examination within 1 hour of the time of purchase and receive a vetting slip to enable examination to take place.

Sellers must check the veterinary board displayed in the Sales Office to see if their lot must be presented for veterinary examination. Sellers should not leave the Sale Site without first checking the vetting board.

ALL LOTS NOT EXAMINED BY THE VETERINARY SURGEON ON THE SALE DAY WILL NOT BE COVERED BY A VETERINARY WARRANTY.

It is emphasised that the facilities are not available to undertake a full veterinary examination on the day of the Sale, but part veterinary examination should take place. This part examination should include examination for warts, sarcoids or sarcoid-like lesions, which can only be complained about on the day of sale. Only lots that are examined by the panel of Veterinary Surgeons appointed by the Auctioneers on the day of the Sale have an extended two working days (including Saturdays) to enable complete veterinary examination. For the full veterinary procedure please see the sales catalogue.

- (1) The Seller agrees that a horse shall be sold subject to veterinary examination.
- (2) If a horse is sold subject to veterinary examination, the Buyer should submit the horse for part veterinary examination on the day of the Sale within one hour of the fall of hammer.
- (3) The sale catalogue shall set out the procedure to be followed by the Buyer on submitting the horse for part veterinary examination on the day of the Sale.
- (4) The purpose of the veterinary examination is to check the accuracy of the physical description of the horse given in the catalogue. The examination will not cover the matters referred to in condition 7(3) above save that the veterinary examination will be conclusive in relation to the "potential" of the horse.
- (5) At the end of the veterinary examination, the Veterinary Surgeon will provide the Buyer with a certificate stating that the horse does or does not comply with the physical description of the horse given in the catalogue.
- (6) In the event that the Sale day or post Sale Veterinary Certificate states that the horse does not comply with the physical description given in the catalogue, the Buyer shall not be liable to pay the price for the horse and is entitled to the return of any deposit that may have been paid by the Buyer.
- (7) In the event that a Buyer fails to avail himself of a veterinary examination on the day of a Sale, the Buyer cannot thereafter make complaint of matters, which would have been covered by a veterinary examination.

9. Liability of the Auctioneer

- (1) The Auctioneer acts as agent of the Seller and the Auctioneer gives no warranties of any kind to the Buyer.

  - (v) the administration of the Complaints Procedure beyond the appointment of an Arbitrator in accordance therewith.

10. Complaints Procedure

- (1) The Buyer shall notify the Auctioneer if the Buyer claims to be entitled to return a horse to the Seller in accordance with condition 7 or for any other reason orally by 5.00 pm on the second day following the Sale.

(2) The Buyer shall follow up this oral notification to the Auctioneer with written notification to the Auctioneer to be received by the Auctioneer within seven days from the date of the Sale. The written notification by the Buyer to the Auctioneer shall set out the grounds upon which the Buyer claims to be entitled to return the horse to the Seller.

(3) Where appropriate, the Buyer shall submit, along with his written notification, a veterinary certificate confirming any matters in respect of which complaint is made. The failure to submit a veterinary certificate in circumstances where such a certificate is appropriate will mean that the Buyer's complaint will not be further entertained and the Buyer shall pay the price for the horse in full.

(4) In the event that the Buyer fails to make oral or written notification of his complaint within the above timescales, the Buyer shall not be allowed to return the horse to the Seller but must make payment for the horse in full unless the Buyer can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer that it was not reasonably practicable for the Buyer to discover the complaint, and to notify the Auctioneer of the same, within the above timescales. However, in no circumstances whatsoever, may the above time limits be extended beyond a period of 14 days after the Sale.

(5) On receipt of a written complaint together, where appropriate, with a veterinary certificate, the Auctioneer shall send a copy of the complaint and the veterinary certificate to the Seller and the Auctioneer shall appoint a suitable person to act as Arbitrator. The task of the Arbitrator will be to examine and determine the complaint. The name of the person appointed by the Auctioneer to act as Arbitrator shall be notified by the Auctioneer to the Seller and to the Buyer. The Auctioneer shall thereafter have no further responsibility in respect of the Complaint Procedure.

(6) The examination and resolution of the complaint shall be under the control of the Arbitrator and the Seller and Buyer shall comply with all directions that may be given by the Auctioneer in respect of the complaint.

(7) The Arbitrator may require, before proceeding to examine and determine the complaint that the Arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be paid in advance. The Seller and the Buyer shall thereupon each pay one-half of the sum stipulated by the Arbitrator.

(8) The Arbitrator may direct that the horse shall be subject to such trial as he may direct and the Seller and Buyer shall lend their full co-operation to such a trial.

(9) If either the Seller or the Buyer fail to comply with a direction of the Arbitrator or fail to pay any sum ordered to be paid by the Arbitrator, then the Arbitrator may at his own discretion decide not to proceed with the examination and determination of the complaint and may, if the Seller is in default, order that the horse be returned to the Seller or may, if the Buyer is in default, order that the Buyer pay the full price to the Seller.

(10) Upon the determination of the complaint, the Arbitrator may at his discretion order that the unsuccessful party pay to the other all the costs and expenses associated with the Complaints Procedure.
