The Cheltenham sale has been proven to be a great success, with four fantastic winners purchased at the May sales.

Matt Mitchell Head of Brightwells Bloodstock is delighted with the results “This success is extraordinary. We are not only achieving the very best prices at our Cheltenham sales, but have the highest strike rate of winners, from runners, of any National Hunt Sale. Our commitment to selling the highest quality bloodstock at our sales is producing excellent results.”

Cheltenham May sale winners include:

The Jigsaw Man (IRE) Won the Stratford-upon-Avon Standard National Hunt Flat Race on the 30th June. This horse was purchased by Gearoid Costello for £4000 and trained by Rebecca Curtis. Sold as part of the Howard Spooner dispersal from Avondale Stables. An impressive 7 length winner on his debut.

Mr Robert (IRE) Won the Totesportgames.com Novices Hurdle at Hexham, on the 21st June and the Middle Rasen Novices Hurdle at Market Rasen, on the 12th June. Purchased for £5000 by Evan Williams and trained by Evan Williams. Sold from Tu Va Stables. From two runs for his new trainer Mr Robert has won twice.

Celebrity Call (IRE) Won the Newton Abbot Racecourse Lady Riders Selling Handicap Hurdle at Newton Abbot on the 4th June. Purchased for £4,200 by Evan Williams and trained by Evan Williams. Sold from Rhonehurst Stables. Also placed 3rd in his last race at Fontwell.

Paddy Pub (IRE) Won the Conynham Cup Handicap Chase at Punchestown on the 27th May.

In total this National Hunt Season (2009/2010), the Cheltenham Sales have produced 21 winners.

The success of the Cheltenham Sales, this year, bodes well for future sales at Cheltenham. The next sale to be held at Cheltenham will be 'The Stars of the Future' Sale on Friday 13th November. Entries are currently being considered. Please contact the bloodstock office on +44 (0)1568 619777.
